The Remote Associates Test (RAT) is a test of creative potential. It was developed by Martha Mednick in 1962 and has since been considered as a valid measure of creativity. Each RAT question presents three cue words that are linked by a fourth word, which is the correct answer.

Remote Associates Test - What word relates to all three ...

The Remote Associates Test (RAT) was developed by Sarnoff Mednick in the 1960s as a test used to measure creative convergent thinking. Each question on the RAT test lists a group of words, and requires that we provide a single extra word that will link all the others together. Often, these words can be associated in a number of ways, such as by forming a compound word or a semantic association.
